

About Us

Duty of HOPE is a statewide DODD Certified Agency Provider. Our evidence-based and client-centric care is joined by behavioral health and developmental disability waiver services designed to assist at-risk and vulnerable persons across the entire life span who need specialized support to lead successful, meaningful lives.

We are committed to being your shoulder to lean on and providing the best care to children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Duty of Hope encourages and safeguards the civil liberties of individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and vigorously supports their full inclusion and involvement in the community throughout their lives.

Our priority is to provide compassionate in-home care from highly trained professionals and aides. To make good on this promise, proper training is paramount. Not only do we
